

New Product Information

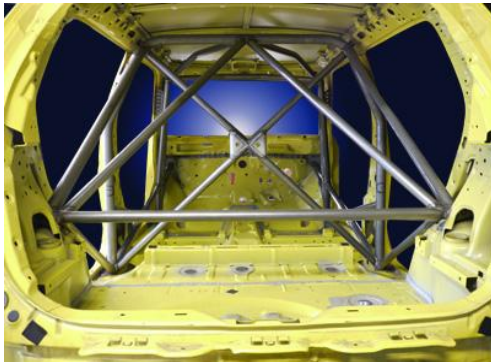

ASN approved Rollcage for Suzuki Swift Sport (ZC31S) has been released

Point 1: This is a Roll cage which has approval to use at FIA title competition (WRC•APRC or others) !

To meet the world standards of safety and body rigidity, this roll cage took and passed the breaking test at an FIA approved test facility.

Point 2: It's design reflected from feedback by actual competition !

The roll cage's design is based on feedback from real motorsport competitions to pursue a balance of safety, strength and rigidity. Additionally with concern to use on Rally competition, the cage has been designed with consideration to working efficiency such as swapping spare tyres.
